PROFILE

We selected for this wine, two white varieties from the 2020 harvest, planted in the Península de Setúbal. The first one, a white of the Greco grape variety, comes from our Faias vineyard planted in 2010. The second is a wine from the Alvarinho grape variety descendant from a plant planted on the slopes of the Arrábida mountain range. Both wines were vinified separately. The final lot was made in March 30th 2021 and then bottled.

TASTING NOTES

With citrus green color, this wine presents with a floral and fruity aroma resembling citrus fruits, yellow fruits and white flowers. In the mouth these aromas are intensified and supplemented by a very present acidity and an elegant structure, giving a rich, fresh and very elegant finish.

HISTORY

It tells the story that when the ship, where St. Marcos travelled, tried to dock in the islands of Rialto, an angel appeared that said to him: "Pax tibi, Marce, evangelista meus. Hic requiescat corpus tuum." announcing that there, he would find eternal rest. Since Marcos became Bishop of Alexandria and lived and died there, the prophecy seemed misguided ... until two merchants of Venice stole his body from the tomb, escaped the storm to the control of the Muslims and arrived, on January 31, 828, in Venice, where the remains of St. Marcos were buried. In this legend, as in life, the end is not always the end and we can concretize, the impossible by the power of the spirit. The winged lion, who represents this wine, reminds us that it is from the impetuous energy and firm courage that the divine force is born. Berardo Reserva Familiar is the result of the nobility of Portuguese and Italian lands and the power and sovereignty of the will. This wine is stimulus and intuition, dominates the glass and the moment. And even when it is over, its aura remains, which inevitably seduces the pleasures of life.
